General Skills

Highly responsible

- Tasks at hand are highly prioritized, and the consequences of failure are well understood.

Thirst for knowledge and new skills

- A willingness to learn from others to better oneself is extremely prevalent, understands that mistakes can only build upon character.

Excellent customer service

- Having worked in the food service industry for 4+ years, I display strong people skills as well as how to serve customers quickly but effectively.

Quick learner

- Within the consultant space, had to learn the premise of projects as I moved between them in a dynamic work space.

Excels in a team setting

- Cooperating and communicating with others is a highly developed skill over years of team sports, group projects, as well as workforce experience in the fast food service industry.

Adaptability

- When thrust into stressful or unexpected situations, able to swiftly derive a new approach to said challenge and change mindset appropriately.

Independent

- When needed, is extremely proficient at working alone to complete tasks, and does so without requiring the validation of others.

Strong work ethic

- Willing to make sacrifices in time and energy to assure any task is completed. Said tasks do not simply meet the requirements, but excel beyond them.
